

Try and get as many blocks completed as possible. Remember, some books will cover more than one category.

Reading Summer Bingo

Read an Edgar Allen Poe short story Visit https://poestories.com/stories.php. He's well known for being a bit scary, so be prepared!	Listen to an Audiobook on BorrowBox Register for a library membership and download the app... there are hundreds of free audiobooks to enjoy! eBooks and audiobooks - Stockport Council	Read a graphic novel/comic book	Take a selfie of yourself reading in an unusual place Find an unusual place/position at home and have someone take a photo of you reading a book.
Read a book by your favourite author.	Read a story that has been translated from another language Explore the Words without Borders website for inspiration: Words Without Borders	Visit your local library Libraries are open (mostly)! Find your local library and pay them a visit. Opening times - Stockport Council	Read a book from a Carnegie Prize shortlisted author Look on these websites for ideas: https://carnegiegreenaway.org.uk And Love Reading for Kids
Read a story with a female heroine	Read a non-fiction book, such as an autobiography, travel writing or historical account	Read a book written this year	Read a book written before the year 2000
Discover a new author on Authorfy Authorfy has lots of videos from lots of different authors. Choose a couple to look at and perhaps find your new favourite author: https://authorfy.com/masterclasses/	Read a Kiran Millwood Hargrave Novel You will be reading one of Hargrave's books in year 7. Get ahead and read some of her other books. You can find out about them here: Kiran Millwood Hargrave (Don't read 'The Girl of Ink and Stars' – save that one for year 7!)	Read a newspaper	Read a book from the Stockport Academy reading list Check out the key stage 3 list at Stockport Academy Website