Dear Parents, Carers and Families,

As we reach the end of another academic year, I would like to take the opportunity to thank you for your continued support and to reflect on what has been a remarkable year for Stockport Academy.

There is much to celebrate. Throughout the year, our students have demonstrated resilience, ambition and character, achieving success both inside and outside the classroom. As an academy, we have continued to go from strength to strength, receiving recognition through a number of prestigious awards and accolades including National Secondary School of the Year which is no small achievement.

While these achievements are pleasing, what makes us most proud is the culture that exists within our school community: one where students are supported to succeed, encouraged to aspire, and challenged to be the very best versions of themselves.

One of the highlights of the year has been the national recognition of our commitment to character education through our prestigious School of Character Quality Mark Plus Award. This award reflects the vast range of opportunities available to our students and celebrates the experiences that help them develop confidence, leadership, resilience and a sense of social responsibility. Whether through sport, performing arts, student leadership, enrichment activities, educational visits or community engagement, we remain committed to ensuring that every young person has access to opportunities that broaden horizons and enrich their education.

Attendance has been another significant strength this year. Excellent attendance enables students to access the full range of educational and enrichment opportunities available to them, and we are grateful for the support families have shown in ensuring students attend school regularly. We look forward to building on this success next year and continuing to promote the importance of every day in school.

As we look ahead, we are incredibly excited about what the next academic year will bring. While we are proud of our achievements, we are equally ambitious for the future. The 2026-27 academic year will be characterised by higher expectations in all areas of academy life. We will continue to focus on excellence in:

- Uniform standards, ensuring students wear their uniform with pride.
- Independent study, developing the habits and discipline required for long-term success.
- Classroom engagement and classwork, so that every lesson maximises learning and achievement.
- Access to opportunities, ensuring every student benefits from the exceptional experiences available through the academy.

These expectations are rooted in our belief that every student deserves the very best education and support, and that high standards create the conditions in which young people thrive.

We are also looking forward with great optimism to this summer's examination results. We are expecting our strongest set of results yet, reflecting the hard work of our students, staff and families. Whatever the outcomes in August, we know that our young people have approached their studies with determination and maturity, and we are enormously proud of them.

As another successful year comes to an end, I would like to thank our students for their commitment, our staff for their dedication, and our families for the invaluable support you provide. Together, we have created a school community that is ambitious, caring and determined to achieve excellence.
